Dear Colan:

It was such a pleasure having you work on our home renovation and addition. We expected the highest standards of professionalism from you and your crew, and we received so much more. All of you were courteous and cheerful every day, and you went beyond our expectations in satisfying our desires for details in joinery, quality of wood chosen, assistance with our special choices of all materials and general artistry of your work. All of the sub-contractors you chose to work on special projects for us were also of the highest quality. We could not have asked for a better experience or a more beautiful home as a result.

You may have prospective clients contact me for more information.

Sincerely,
